Boycott I-Day: NSCN(K)

AT News · 20:11, 10 Aug 2017 · 9085 views · 1 min read

After GNLA (/taxonomy/term/130), now its turn for National (/taxonomy/term/1874) Socialist Council of Nagaland (/taxonomy/term/1597) (Khaplang) to announce boycott call of the Independence Day slated for August 15.

The Naga rebel outfit has urged the people in the Naga inhibited areas to boycott the celebration of Indian National (/taxonomy/term/1874) day. This was stated in a press statement issued by the outfit's Ministry of Information and Publicity (MIP).

“Every Naga citizen must rise to the occasion, confront the illegal colonization, reassert our birthright, uphold the legacy passed onto us by our pioneers and commit oneself to liberate our nation.” Said the outfit.
