BJP and UPPL are heading towards a decimation in the BTAD polls where counting is currently underway.

According to reports, the Hagrama Mohilary-led BPF is taking a huge lead in most of the seats, far ahead of the ruling UPPL, which is leading in only 5 seats.

Significantly, the high-profile campaign by Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma along with BJP stars has failed to woo voters, with the party taking the lead in only 2-3 seats.

If this trend continues till 1 in the afternoon, BPF will be able to ensure a landslide victory.

On the other hand, the resurgent Congress has also failed to take lead in any constituency.
