Thousands of BPF supporters from Baokhungri constituency of BTC thronged and staged demonstration at Swrang ME school ground while another aspiring candidate Uma Rani Basumatary also show her party supporters today at Dwimalu club ground at Kokrajhari village in Kokrajhar seeking party ticket to contest ensuing BTC elections by first week of April next.

Common voters from constituency demanded nomination should be given to Rajkumar Brahma from party and ensure safe and developments in the seat . The voters urged the party high command to give ticket to Brahma and confirm winning of his candidature from the constituency.

Rajkumar Brahma has expressed his confidence that party high command will put his candidature from the seat.He said irrespective of caste creed and organisations are supporting him and his winning is cent percent clear in the election.

Uma Rani also claimed that her candidature is clear and she will get party ticket to contest election.

Meanwhile, sitting BTC member from the constituency Doneswar Goyary said that he is going to contest the ensuing council election on party ticket as party high command will put his candidature for next term. He said that he was involved on building social development for all communities in his seat since one decade as he was representing the constituency. He said that he had been associated with social activity.
