The NDFB-S carnage (/taxonomy/term/2011) brews blamegame between BPF and BPPF. BPPF president Rabiram Narzary (/taxonomy/term/1739) lambasted Hagrama Mohilary (/taxonomy/term/1896) on Saturday a day after the BPF boss (/taxonomy/term/2034) accused ABSU and BPPF of instigating the killers in Kokrajhar and Sonitpur districts.

Narzary (/taxonomy/term/1739) told reporters in Kokrajhar that Mohilary has lost his mass base which was why, he starts making immature statement. He feared that these statement would further compound the situation.

He termed Mohilary's statement as big political conspiracy to mislead the mission of the government to root out the terrorist by saving them. Same condemnation comes from ABSU. The student body has come down heavily on Mohilary for the controversial and baseless statement on the prevailing situation in the state.

Notably, Mohilary on Friday alleged involvement of ABSU, BPPF and NDFB(P) in the carnage (/taxonomy/term/2011) citing some evidence.
