Independent candidate backed by ABSU and its allied organizations like BPPF, UDPF, PJACBM and NDFB (P) Urkhao Gwra Brahma of Kokrajhar Lok Sabha has alleged that there is thin security arrangement in the strong room as well as in the district, which had witnessed violence recently in the region after parliamentary election.

He has expressed his feared that there was suspect ion of EVM tempering during recent BTAD violence by the ruling party, as there was no tight security in the strong room and entire region. He said that winning and defeating in the election is the minor thing for him. He has claimed that he will win the election in huge votes as peoples voted him for bringing change of society.

Independent candidate Naba Kumar Sarania also seeks tight security during the day of result declaration to stop unwanted situation and maintaining peace and harmony. He blames the BPF behind the killing at Balapara and Narayanguri in Kokrajhar and Baksa respectively.

Sitting Assam minister and BPF candidate Chadan Brahma has also claimed that his winning in the Kokrajhar Lok Sabha seat is cleared as people voted in favour of him.
