Breather for eye surgery victims

AT News · 16:56, 22 Mar 2017 · 7936 views · 1 min read

The Gauhati High Court on Wednesday directed the Assam Government to compensate Rs 3.50 lakh each top five people who lost eye eights after undergoing a government sponsored cataract surgery at MMCH in Guwahati two years back.

A division bench of the court comprising Justice Manjit Bhuyan and Justice Ajit Singh, who heard the petition (/taxonomy/term/2109) passed the directive under the Public Law much to the huge respite for the people.
