Asom (/taxonomy/term/2581) Sahitya Sabha (/taxonomy/term/46)'s former president Kanaksen Deka inaugurated a book titled Buddhism In Assam on Monday at Guwahati Press Club. Penned by the US (/taxonomy/term/1702) based engineer Dr Rajen Barua, the book is an outcome of serious research works for decades, where the history of Buddhism in the region from 600 BC to 1600 AD has been described with notable facts.

A periodical for translated literary works named Saneki was also inaugurated by academician Manjumala Das (/taxonomy/term/1926) in presence of publishers (/taxonomy/term/2042) Abani M. Sarma & Ranjit Gogoi, journalists Nava Thakuria & Ankur Ranjan (/taxonomy/term/1709) Changmai (/taxonomy/term/2188) along with a number of distinguished personalities.
