On July 26, 2008, for the first time in North-East India, a Kargil Day Salute Motorbike Ride from Laipuli, Tinisukia to Khumtai, Golaghat will be held. This event is engineered to pay homage to Captain Jintu Gogoi, and the sacrifices of Kargil War heroes.

According to Kickstart Adventure, this event will revive the enthusiasm of the Youth of Assam who now a days seem to be so busy with their own concerns that Adventurism and Patriotism has taken a back seat. Assamese youth had the power to shake the whole world once, seems to be in a deep slumber. This long distance motorcycle rally is just a small try from www.kickstartadventures.com to awake them towards their duties as a patriotic Assamese and to make them aware of adventure tourism vistas which is a craze all over the world now a days.

Moreover, Kickstart Adventure is pioneering the concept of adventure tourism through motorbike tours in North-East India. Since Jintu Gogoi's birthday is a suitable occasion for such a rally (to symbolize the daring attitude of a youth like Jintu Gogoi possessed), to taken forward with, so as a start-up firm Kickstart Adventure have come up with this as a first initiative.

Another objective of Kickstart Adventure is that for emergence of any economy, the right fuel for growth is Youth Power, and Assamese youth need motivation and inspiration to exploit Assam's natural bounties and immense potential she has to make itself a world's best Adventure Tourism zone.
