Finally, the Central Bureau of Investigation has lodged a formal complaint against six unnamed officials of the Guwahati Metropolitan Development (/taxonomy/term/2310) Authority (GMDA) in connection with the Louis (/taxonomy/term/2322) Berger bribery scam.

The country's premier investigation agency filed FIR on Thursday two weeks after the Gauhati High Court ordered the authority to hand over (/taxonomy/term/2166) the probe to CBI slamming the state (/taxonomy/term/2332) police for it's failure (/taxonomy/term/1952). The CBI team is preparing to leave for Guwahati in a day or two.

CBI is believed to have set up a team to probe the allegations of the multi crore bribery case where a New Jersey based consultancy had to bribe a circle of GMDA officials to get the award of contracts for a water supply scheme in the capital city of Guwahati.

A portion of the kick back allegedly reached a circle of powerful lobby in Dispur during the Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150) regime. As the scam surfaced, the then chief minister Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150) ordered CID probe which failed to proceed properly.

Acting on a PIL (/taxonomy/term/2277), the Gauhati High Court asked CBI to take over (/taxonomy/term/2166) the probe.
