A fourteen member team comprising of health officials from the central and state governments visited the Kushal Konwer Civil Hospital in Golaghat on Sunday. The Common Review Mission team had inspected and reviewed the infrastructure and medical services of the hospital. The team will prepare and submit a report of their inspection to the central government. Kushal Konwer Civil Hospital is on news flash very often for several reasons like dirty atmosphere, lack of medical facilities, misconduct of staff etc. But surprisingly today an opposite scenario prevailed in the hospital premises during the central team's inspection. The entire hospital was clean and hygienic and the doctors were wearing white coats which was rarely seen in the other times.

KOKRAJHAR, September 22, 2026 — The All Bodo Students' Union (ABSU) on Tuesday burnt copies of a book titled Hamkoshar Parishista during protests held at several locations across Assam, including Gauhati University, objecting to what it described as the use of the Assamese script to represent the Bodo language.

Hamkoshar Parishista is a multilingual appendix containing learning resources for indigenous languages of Assam, including Bodo, Rabha, Mising and Karbi.

During the protests, ABSU members alleged that Bodo has been represented in the publication using the Assamese script instead of Devanagari, the script used for Bodo.

The organisation asserted that Bodo is recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India and is an Associate Official Language of Assam. ABSU demanded that Bodo be represented in its recognised script in educational and learning resources.

ABSU president Khwrmmdao Wary said the use of the Assamese script to represent Bodo in the publication was disrespectful to the Bodo language and literature.

He said Bodo is an Associate Official Language of Assam and a language recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

Wary demanded the immediate withdrawal of the publication in its present form and called for the use of the Devanagari script for Bodo in the book.
