BJP MPs Bijoya Chakrabartty and Ramen Deka (/taxonomy/term/1450) are on a stock taking visit (/taxonomy/term/767) to Uriamghat (/taxonomy/term/1493) on Tuesday (/taxonomy/term/1525) a day after the angry people heckled Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/512).

Immediately after arriving the relief (/taxonomy/term/1520) camps, Chakrabartty and Deka (/taxonomy/term/1450) talked to the camp inmates and expressed grave (/taxonomy/term/1068) concern (/taxonomy/term/1262) over the attack (/taxonomy/term/1487) by the Naga (/taxonomy/term/741) miscreants (/taxonomy/term/851) where at least 15 (/taxonomy/term/1396) people were killed (/taxonomy/term/839) and over 50 (/taxonomy/term/1413) houses were set on fire (/taxonomy/term/752).

The duo further talked to the top ranked civil and police (/taxonomy/term/762) officials who have been monitoring the entire situation along the Assam (/taxonomy/term/548)-Nagaland border (/taxonomy/term/665).

Notably, angry camp inmates heckled the chief minister on Monday when he was on a stock taking visit (</taxonomy/term/767>) to the troubled torn areas.
