Manas Konwar, executive president of the Chatramukti Sangram Samity, the students' wing of the KMSS, has been arrested on Thursday by the NIA.

According to some information a sleuth of the National Investigation Agency picked up the Chatramukti Sangram Samity leader.

He has been arrested for his alleged involvement with Maoist, sources revealed.

Earlier, the NIA arrested Akhil Gogoi, leader of the KMSS on similar charges.

Currently, he has been kept behind bars.

Both the KMSS and Chatramukti Sangram Samity have been vehemently protesting against the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019.
