Along with the other parts of the country Christmas was celebrated with gaiety and religious fervour in the town, with midnight mass ringing in the festivities to mark the birth of Jesus Christ. Churches of the town wore a festive look as the faithful flocked the Baptist church and Don Bosco, Tangla Catholic church for midnight mass.

People of other religions also joined the mass and celebrations on Monday morning.

Carols were being sung, gifts exchanged among the children as well as scenes of the birth of Christ were enacted by faithfuls at the churches.

In the Don Bosco Catholic church midnight prayers were led by Don Bosco Mount Rector, Fr. CA John Special Christmas prayers were held in the church on Monday morning which were led by Rector Fr. Marcus Lakra, followed by musical programmes.

A sizeable number of people of Christian faith as well as other faith took part in the morning prayers in the cathedrals.

The church witnessed visitors throughout the day. The town as a whole was gripped in the Yuletide spirit with colourful decorations and Christmas carols. Don Bosco Church was the main centre of Christmas celebration for the Catholic people. People lighted candles and incense sticks in the Church premises and offered prayers. Visitors of different faiths kept admiring the colourful decorations and decorative lighting works in the church premises.
