Nine CISF jawnas have been injured while some Adivasi people attacked them at an incident on Tuesday in Dibrugarh district's Tengakhat area.

According to information, more than 50 Adivasi people came and gatecrashed the Oil India station inside a tea garden at Tengakhat and started pelting stones at them.

The mob alleged that these jawnas misbehaved with a woman on Monday forcing them to retaliate. The CISF jawnas fired in the air and informed the police. As soon as the police arrived in the scene, the irate mob scuffled with the police. A bullet came off a policeman's gun injuring one of the Adivasi people. The injured CISF jawans along with the peoplemen were given first aid before release. The Adivasi guy was rushed to the Assam Medical College Hospital.
