The move for cabinet expansion in Assam hits a major hurdle when BJP president Amit Shah (/taxonomy/term/2123) met AGP and BPF leadership in New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868) on Monday.

The two coalition partners have demanded more berths and refused to give in. The party president is further believed to have been dead opposed to the induction of a legislator in the expanded cabinet.

All these issues figured in the close door meeting of Amit Shah

(/taxonomy/term/2123) with AGP president Atul Bora (/taxonomy/term/1799), his BPF counterpart Hagrama Mohilary (/taxonomy/term/1896) and senior BJP leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) Himanta Biswa Sarma.

Caught in a dire confusion and controversy (/taxonomy/term/1752), party president Amit Shah (/taxonomy/term/2123) invited chief (/taxonomy/term/2020) minister Sarbananda Sonowal to attend another round of meeting on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning.
