Koliabor Congress candidate Gaurav Gogoi has dared CMSS to challenge his affidavits before the Election Commission.

Gogoi's sharp reaction came a day after the student body alleged that the chief minister's son has not provided the real assets owned by him.

Talking to reporters in Sarupathar, Gogoi said any organization is free to lodge any complaint against him.

CMSS on Saturday lodged a complaint before the election commission that in his affidavit, Gogoi has not provided all particulars on his assets.
