Cong loses Dima Hasao council

AT News · 07:19, 11 Oct 2015 · 8196 views · 1 min read

The ruling Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) is all set to lose the North Cachar Hills Autonomous Council. BJP moved the Assam governor PB (/taxonomy/term/2211) Acharya (/taxonomy/term/1955) staking claims to form the council saying that they have numbers.

But the governor is all set to hold a special convention of the council to examine the majority of the Congress (/taxonomy/term/90). If Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) fails to prove majority, the council would be dissolved paving the way for forming the BJP council.

The bizarre development took place on Friday when five Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) executive members along with four others joined BJP. Now BJP's strength has gone up from (/taxonomy/term/2005)10 (/taxonomy/term/2005) to 16 in the 28 member council.

A team of senior BJP leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) on Saturday met Governor (/taxonomy/term/2435) PB (/taxonomy/term/2211) Acharya (/taxonomy/term/1955) at the Raj Bhawan and apprised him of the development and formally staked claim (/taxonomy/term/1755) to form the Dima Hasao (/taxonomy/term/78) Autonomous Council.
