

LATEST NEWS

Congress to field candidates

Hantigiri Narzary · 21:35, 16 Mar 2015 · 10415 views · 1 min read

The Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) said that it will put own candidates and majority winning is cent percent clear in the ensuing BTC council election scheduled to be held by April next.

Apurba Kumar Bhattacharya, spokesman of APCC addressing the reporters today at Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) office in Kokrajhar said that his party is contesting in all 40 seats of the council and still have no alliance with parties. He said that party has been geraing up its party position in the region. He said that peoples of the region will vote for Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) to meeting change of society and its development.

He told that his party will provide equal development and distribution among all sections of society. He said that peoples of the region could not get proper development and unity in the region in the last decade ruled by BPF party as peoples wanted more sustan of development.

He has urged the peoples of the region vote for Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) and make sustaining of development and progress in all respects of spirits. He said that Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) is organising a grand rally at Kokrajhar on March 18 where Chief Minister Traun Gogoi, APCC President Anjan Dutta will garce the rally.

Hantigiri Narzary

Reporting from Kokrajhar

---

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/congress-to-field-candidates-13212> | Published: 16 March 2015 | © 2026 Assam Times