A massive extortion drive by ULFA is likely to hit a section of businessman in near future.

The banned insurgent outfit is set to gear up it to contain the grim financial crisis plaguing it for the last couple of months.

Sources told Assam Times that the outfit has asked Jibon Moran to manage the crisis that cripples the leaders and cadres alike in the dense jungles of Myanmar.

“If the crisis remains unplugged a grim food crisis would cripple the entire banned outfit. Many insurgents will have to remain starved,” said sources.

Moran, who is camping in Toga region of the neighbouring country is desperately trying to micro manage the crisis with a team of dreaded militant.

The ULFA’s anti talk faction is surviving only with the help of NSCN-K who was believed to have struck deal with Maynmar two years back.
