A dead body of a driver of Nalbari reserve police was found at Bardhantuli no. 5 Batasila gaon Panchayat under Nalbari police station in Barpeta district this morning. The dead body was identified as Najrul ali of Bardhantuli village in Nalbari district. According to report, Najrul was killed brutally while he was returning from his work yesterday night and after killing him the miscreants kept his dead body in a pond at Bardhantuli village near his home. Though the miscreants have not been identified till now three or four youths remained absent in that place after the incident. Hence the suspect pointed to those youths also. But the police have not been captured anyone till filling this report.
