In a major development that could put the BJP-led government in a fix, a BJP MP has demanded an enquiry into the allegations of scams during the 15 year long Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) Government.

Mongoldoi MP Ramen Deka in his recent letter to Sarbananda Sonowal has urged him to constitute a probe in to the major allegations which took place during the Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150) regime.

“The allegations of corruption should be probed. This is my request. I have not taken anybody’s name individually,” Deka told Assam Times over (/taxonomy/term/2166) telephone from New Delhi (/taxonomy/term/1868).

But the letter bears no less significance when a section of the ministers (/taxonomy/term/2422) in the Sonowal Government was known for their vital role in the erstwhile Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150) Government.

“Nobody should be spared. Corruption (/taxonomy/term/58) is corruption (/taxonomy/term/58). We would weed out it. Our Government is firm on tackling corruption (/taxonomy/term/58) in all forms,” said a senior BJP leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) in Assam.

A section senior Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) is believed to have been satisfied with Deka’s letter demanding probe into the allegations of corruption in the 15 year long Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) regime.

“We are happy and a BJP leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) has asked for an inquiry. We think it would reveal the real source or person behind the allegations of scams,” said a senior Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) in Guwahati.

“We dare the Chief Minister Sonowal to probe the allegations of scams and to figure out the person or persons responsible for it. But we will closely watch the action against (/taxonomy/term/1929) the indicted person,” he said.

Another Congress (/taxonomy/term/90) leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) said,” we are happy to have heard it. But it remains to be seen how the Government will take action against (/taxonomy/term/1929) the ministers (/taxonomy/term/2422) who till the other day were Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150)'s cabinet colleagues and struck media headlines with some stunning allegations of corruption.”
