The people of Patacharkuchi in Barpeta district are witnessing pathetic conditions of progress in their constituency. The government despite its efforts have failed to take development to the people. Road infrastructures are yet underdeveloped and accidents common in the absence of street lights in accident prone zones. The roads connecting Tihu-Khardhara-Bihali, Patacharkuchi-Odalguri, Balapara-Makhibaha - PHE via Kukurmara Road from Dubi Malipara to Tapottari are in a very deplorable state.

Patacharkuchi aches for development. People of the town are of the view that a candidate who works for the development of the people is prime rather than the political party he or she represents. Propagandists agendas do not bring in necessary development they feel.

KOKRAJHAR, September 22, 2026 — The All Bodo Students' Union (ABSU) on Tuesday burnt copies of a book titled Hamkoshar Parishista during protests held at several locations across Assam, including Gauhati University, objecting to what it described as the use of the Assamese script to represent the Bodo language.

Hamkoshar Parishista is a multilingual appendix containing learning resources for indigenous languages of Assam, including Bodo, Rabha, Mising and Karbi.

During the protests, ABSU members alleged that Bodo has been represented in the publication using the Assamese script instead of Devanagari, the script used for Bodo.

The organisation asserted that Bodo is recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution of India and is an Associate Official Language of Assam. ABSU demanded that Bodo be represented in its recognised script in educational and learning resources.

ABSU president Khwrmmdao Wary said the use of the Assamese script to represent Bodo in the publication was disrespectful to the Bodo language and literature.

He said Bodo is an Associate Official Language of Assam and a language recognised under the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution.

Wary demanded the immediate withdrawal of the publication in its present form and called for the use of the Devanagari script for Bodo in the book.
