Disabled persons may be handicapped. But they have a strong will power. They do not lag behind others. A group of disabled (/taxonomy/term/1796) persons sent an encouraging message to the people by participating at a cleanliness drive in Kokrajhar on Saturday.

Organized by a non governmental organization, the drive began from the Kokrajhar Sadar police station to the J D Road in the town area. They appealed to the people to keep their places clean (/taxonomy/term/1718) before they wrapped up the drive at DC bungalow via civil line road in Kokrajhar.

The organizers said that they will organize clean (/taxonomy/term/1718) drive in all districts of BTAD and bringing awareness about creating healthy and sound living among society. The NGO has urged the all citizens to keep clean (/taxonomy/term/1718) and healthy living in the region and make India sound country across the world.

‘Though we(disabled (/taxonomy/term/1796) persons) may be handicapped, but yet we have too strong will to clean (/taxonomy/term/1718) and organizing social activity, of which why we organized these kinds of drive among society so that Bharat can be healthy and cleaned country’, said the NGO leaders.
