

LATEST NEWS

Discontent in Dhemaji AGP

AT News · 23:59, 19 Mar 2017 · 9410 views · 1 min read

AGP central leadership is facing no less ire in Dhemaji for striking alliance with BJP in the upcoming assembly by polls slated for April 9.

A section of party leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) in the tribal dominated district has been demanding a consensus candidate to contest the polls if the regional party fails to withdraw the alliance.

Despite repeated requested and appeal, the central leadership has left the seat to BJP who is allowing tribal leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) Dr Ranoj Pegu to contest.

Two days back, the district party leaders (</taxonomy/term/2082>) held a talks at Ambari where the leadership refused to read them and allowed BJP to contest. The by poll was necessitated after Pradan (</taxonomy/term/2333>) Baruah was elected to the Lok Sabha when Sarbananda Sonowal resigned as (</taxonomy/term/2291>) LS MP from Lakhimpur.

AT News

Assam Times Staff. editor@assamtimes.org

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/discontent-in-dhemaji-agp-18700> | Published: 19 March 2017 | © 2026 Assam Times