All is unwell \(/taxonomy/term/2147\) in the Asom \(/taxonomy/term/2581\) Gana Parishad if the prevailing scenario inside the regional party is any indication. The main coalition partner of the BJP-led government in Dispur is heading for a vertical split with a very short spell of time.

The dissidence against \(/taxonomy/term/1929\) the sitting president Atul Bora \(/taxonomy/term/1799\) seems to have growing following his stoic silence on a number of issues where AGP refuses to buy BJP.

The split within the party came to light after the NDA government at the Centre moved a motion in parliament to amend the Constitution to roll out red carpet to the Hindu people from the neighbouring countries.

Initially, Bora (/taxonomy/term/1799) kept mum on the issue. Never did the president Bora (/taxonomy/term/1799) opposed it openly and nor he convened a meeting of his party to discuss the issue where Assam would be an open abode of the Bangladeshi immigrants to get the refugee status.

Former chief (/taxonomy/term/2020) minister Prafulla Kumar Mahanta is dead opposed to the move. But he alone cant do much in the absence of the president Bora (/taxonomy/term/1799) who is enjoying cabinet berth in the Sarbananda Sonowal's council of ministers (/taxonomy/term/2422).

According to Mahanta and his camp never the Sonoel government discussed anything before taking a major decision which is anti people. Fed up with this schemes of things, MAHANTA has been in touch with the Left (/taxonomy/term/1960) veterans for further course of action. But Bora (/taxonomy/term/1799) had yet to moves against (/taxonomy/term/1929) the NDA's move on refugee status to the Bangladeshi immigrants.
