

Diwali Celebration going on

Comments 0

pbaruah 9 November 2007 11164 views

Assam also observes Dewali, the festival of light across the state. Rows and rows of earthen lamps, sounds of fire crackers speak all what the celebration everywhere.

Despite some restrictions to control pollution in the time of Diwali, people in the city are out to the streets to enjoy it with fire crackers. Several organizations are organizing some functions to celebrate the festival.

People in the city of Guwahati are making long queue in the markets for Diwali shopping. Banana trees are also being sold like hot cakes from Thursday morning. But at a price that is much dearer for the common people.

Assam Governor Lt general (Retd) Ajoy Kumar Singh and Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi greet the people on the occasion of the festival of light. In their messages, they hope the festival will mark the beginning of a new era in the state.

pbaruah

BY PBARUAH

Gogoi comes up with steps to check infiltration

Dreaded ULFA leader apprehended

AAKRSU activists arrested; 1000 kamatapur bandh on Sunday

Rabha Hasongs withdraws strike

Rajdhani Blast: NSG to assist probe

ON THIS DAY

Road safety awareness programe held in Kokrajhar

Believers Eastern Church Satgaon Mission Diocese Cleanliness Drive

Why has Egg become Danger for Manipur?

Orthopaedic doctors to conduct media OPD clinic

Believers Eastern Church Satgaon Mission Diocese Organises Swachta Hi Sewa
