Don't hold protest: Akhil

AT News · 19:10, 6 Mar 2014 · 8106 views · 1 min read

Akhil Gogoi has appealed to the KMSS leaders and activists not to hold any protest demanding his release.

The KMSS president, who is in police custody for the last four days told his advocate that the activists should not take resort to violence in the name of protest against his arrest.

Gogoi, along with five of his associates were arrested on Sunday wee hours in connection with the recent self immolation case.
