The United Liberation Front of Asom (ULFA (/taxonomy/term/124)-I) has warned against (/taxonomy/term/1929) the steps to eulogize the outside personalities by installing their statues who have downplayed Assam and its people.

In a statement released on Sunday, the outfit's publicity secretary Aronodoi Dohotia said that the state (/taxonomy/term/2332)'s political leaders (/taxonomy/term/2082) who have been kowtowing their bosses in the distant Delhi should stop (/taxonomy/term/2235) paying homage to the outside heroes. He said Assam has no dearth of heroes to be highlighted.

Eulogizing outsiders would undermine the heroes at home, said the ULFA (/taxonomy/term/124)(I) leader (/taxonomy/term/1820) adding questioning the major roads (/taxonomy/term/2454) and projects named after Nehru who bad farewell to Assam in his radio speech during the Chinese aggression.
