The Opposition Asom Gana Parishad demands Assam Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi's resignation charging him with making frequent foreign tours at the cost of the state exchequer.

Addressing a press conference in Guwahati on Sunday, party president Chandra Mohan Patowary said Gogoi may justify saying that he visited the nations to get a first hand information about the latest technology. Patowary said if he really thinks so he should refrain from wasting public money.

He further lambasted Gogoi for autocratic style of functioning after he retained Dispur for third consecutive term. "We demand his resignation and a special session of the assembly", said Patowary.

The regional party has chalked out a programme in every district headquarters to counter the land deal with Bangladesh.
