Due to the forthcoming general election of Nagaland on February 23, Sivagagar district administration declared dry day on February 22 and 23 in the Assam-Nagaland border areas. All wine shoppes and bars for these 2 days ordered to be closed.

On the other hand, tension is going on in the Galekey border area where the Nagaland govt. is trying to establish pooling stations inside Assam and which include names of Assamese voters. Local administration tightened the security in the border areas.
