Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) community (/taxonomy/term/2084) residing in the Silicon City of Bangalore headed by Assam Society of Bangalore had recently celebrated (/taxonomy/term/2092) Shree Shree Durga Puja for the third consecutive year. This year the venue was a Govt. Ground in Koramangala, the heart (/taxonomy/term/2457) of Bangalore. It was a 5 days mega event well mixed with Devi Worship, Bhog and Cultural Extravaganzas. The purohits were invited from Dergaon, Assam to give the Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) Community here the real feeling of Durga Puja the way they celebrate back home.

The cultural team left no stone unturned to make each of the four cultural nights a memorable one. From Borgeet to Negera Naam, Bihu to Arabian Folk Dance (/taxonomy/term/2445), Bharat Natyam to Shatriya Dance (/taxonomy/term/2445), Mizo (/taxonomy/term/1770) Bamboo Dance (/taxonomy/term/2445) to Yakshagana (Kannada folk dance (/taxonomy/term/2445)), Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) songs to Rock Music (/taxonomy/term/2053), Modern Dance to DJ Dandiya everything were included in the cultural programs. On the Maha Navami night ASoB Members had performed a thought provoking Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) one act play that earned well appreciation form the audience. Kannada Cine Star Nirup Bhandari was the chief (/taxonomy/term/2020) guest of Navami Cultural Night. Society members also performed a Bihu Husori showcasing rich cultures of Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) tribes.

Late Bhupen Hazarika (/taxonomy/term/1841)'s Bistirno Parore was sung in a multilingual chorus (Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159), Hindi and Bengali) as (/taxonomy/term/2291) a tribute to the legend. During this Puja through the yearly souvenir "Shree", ASoB had also taken a noble initiative of connecting other Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) societies/associations in India (/taxonomy/term/2367). Assam Association of- Mumbai, Kolkata, Chennai, Vadodara, Gurgaon (/taxonomy/term/2174), Delhi had offered special best wishes messages for the Souvenir 'Shree'. President (/taxonomy/term/2432) of Kolkata Assamese (/taxonomy/term/2159) Cultural Association and Secretary of Assam Association Vadodara had attended the Puja Celebration.
