

Educational seminar by AIM

Comments 0

Ranjan K Baruah 17 October 2012 7624 views

In a bid to discuss the challenges and vistas of MBA and afterwards the students of Asian Institute of Management and Science organised a daylong seminar on “challenges and vistas after MBA in North East” at its campus on 16th October. The sessions were divided into present job scenario and challenges faced by youth in north east India. There was also focus on the importance of soft skill, communication skill and interview skill through which student can excel in any of the interview. Ranjan K Baruah, social entrepreneur cum youth activist spoke on the challenges of the youth and he had discussed the challenges faced by youth in the region. He appealed the students to become entrepreneur by exploring opportunities in the north east and lead the society for social change. Rishi Raj Borthakur spoke on the importance of soft skill and other interview skill. It was organised as part of SMART managers’ programme of AIMT. Akash Pratim Hazarika took the initiative a the group leader who conducted the programme.

Ranjan K Baruah

Citizen Journalist and activist.

BY RANJAN K BARUAH

Lakes: The lifeblood of our planet

Humanitarian Workers Stand Up for People in Need

Different Contexts, Common Aspirations

MSME Day: Innovation key to building resilient businesses

International Day Against Drug Abuse: Innovation key to combating illicit drugs

ON THIS DAY

NE culture programme in London from Monday

1 NDFB(S) cadre, 2 suspected linkman apprehended in Udalguri

Lady bank manager shot dead by miscreants

7th pay commission to implement in Tripura

Girish Chandra Bhattacharjya remembered
