Amid an elaborate security arrangement, Gujarat Chief Minister Narendra Modi is scheduled to address a huge rally in Guwahati on Saturday.

The Veterinary Playground in Khanapara has turned into a security fortress a day before his arrival. A team of Gujarat police has been camping in Guwahati to assess the security on Saturday.

The BJP's prime ministerial candidate is set scheduled to land a the Lokpriya Gopiath Bordoloi International Airport at 1 in the afternoon. Then he would straightly leave for Sarusajai by a helicopter. Then he would leave for the rally site to address the huge rally where over 2 lakh people are expected to attend the rally.
