GUWAHATI: The United Liberation Front of Asom (I) has urged the people to endorse the age old and indigenous (/taxonomy/term/2124) culture and tradition to help the Assamese stand tall as a nation. In a statement released on the eve of Magh Bihu, ULFA (/taxonomy/term/124)(I) chairman Abhijet Asom said since the festival is directly agriculture based, the peasants should adopt the indigenous (/taxonomy/term/2124) seeds instead of the imported hybrid seeds. He said instead of the imported culture the people should promote the local and indigenous (/taxonomy/term/2124) language and culture in the annual festival of feasting and merry making.
