Guwahati: A powerful bomb that explodes in the city on Saturday morning leaves four people dead besides more than twenty injured.

The explosion took place at Machkhowa and that too in front of a mosque at a daily vegetable market at around 7-30 am. All those killed in the explosion are pedestrians.

Immediately after the explosion, top ranked police and civil administration officials arrived in the spot and investigation is going on.

The injured were admitted to the nearby hospital.

No one has so far been rounded up in the city. Details are awaited.
