

Forest Award for Best Agro-forestry activities

Comments 1

Anup Biswas 13 August 2010 16498 views

To encourage and to create awareness among the people about the forestry and its conservation throughout the district, the forest department will reward individual, village and Joint Forest Management Committee during Independence Day celebration at Haflong.

There will be three categories like the best individual tree plantation award, the best Agro forestry practice village award and the best JFMC award. The prizes will carry a certificates of recognition and cash of rupees ten thousand for the best Agro forestry practice village award and the best JFMC award each and rupees six thousand for the best individual tree plantation award.

Talking to this correspondent, Sri Bikash Brahma, Conservator of Forest disclosed that the people of Dima Hasao of late realized the importance of forestry and an atmosphere of forest management and conservation is prevailing particularly among the rural people. Hundreds of people from far flung areas of the district always approach the forest department for various advice and assistance regarding tree plantation and its conservation.

Sri Brahma said a selection committee was formed with M.C.Kalita, DFO as President, Sri T. Saikia, DFO and Sri B. C. Langthasa, DCF as Member secretaries for selecting awardees.

Anup Biswas

Anup Biswas - Journalist from Haflong.

BY ANUP BISWAS

DHAC session held

Immediate release of Mohet Hojai demanded

National Integration Tour Flagged Off

CLP refutes HSDP's allegation

Haflong Doctor made Dima Hasao proud

ON THIS DAY

Assam Students Excel in Statewide Wildlife Conservation Competition

BSF gets more power

Barhoongkha lifts football trophy

Three arrested in Junu Sarma murder case

Wild jumbo kills two in Udalguri
