Sashastra Seema Bal (SSB) organised a two day free health check up camp and Free Veterinary Health Camp in two remote and inaccessible villages of Udalguri district recently the villages namely Teliyapara and Phulbari .The free health camp which was flagged off by the Udalguri SSB Commanding officer B.K Sharma was attended by a great number of village folks. The persons were also given medicines free of cost. Such initiatives by the paramilitary forces in remote villages of Indo-Bhutan border is applaudable said one of the beneficiary.It may be mentioned that SSB have been rendering yeoman's service in Udalguri district since it was stationed at Bhairabkunda .The SSB has a glorious past as it was formed for the internal security of the border regions along Nepal and Bhutan immediately after the 1962 India -China war and since then, the security force has been doing a lot of people-friendly activities in the border region.
