City police have arrested one more person in connection with the 1/1 strike in Guwahati that left 6 persons dead and over 50 injured.

According to information, police arrested one Sanjiv Talukdar from Rangiya on Sunday. Sanjiv, an ULFa cadre had frequent contact with the blast mastermind Pranjal Deka of the outfit's 709 Battalion.

It is learnt that Sanjeev carried the bombs to Adabari area in the city at the instance of another 709 battalion cadre Khagen Kalita and that Panjal himself received the bombs from Sanjiv. Interrogation is on.

It may be recalled that police have already arrested nine people in this connection a day after the serial blast rocked three places in the city.
