This story looks like a film script of a typical Bollywood movie with an anticlimax for one of the friends. According to the information given by Nagaon Police to media persons, on the November 5 last year, a youth Abhijeet Sutradhar resident of English Patti in Haibargaon, Nagaon was found murdered at the By-Pass of Nagaon Town. A case was then registered at the Haiborgaon police station by the family members of the deceased. A mobile clip of the deceased was also deposited at the police station by the family members in which the deceased person is saying that he is having beer at a party with Rajib das. The police then arrested he accused Rajib Das. Nagaon On February 9, police made a major breakthrough in the case after arresting the deceased. The name of the other three arrested persons are Uttam Ghosh, Biplab Kalita, and Ranjit Das.

Uttam Ghosh admitted that they became jealous with the progress Abhijeet sutradhar was making in his work and so they planned well organized and executed the murder of their friend. They took him out for a party and then murderd him. The main accused of the crime is said to be Ranjit das. The role of Nagaon police team led by SP Sunil Kumar (IPS) and Haibargaon Police station in-charge Kulndra Bharali in solving the case was appreciated by the people of the neighbourhood.
