Security personnels of Rangiya based 61 Engineering Regiment of Red Horns Army, during a routine security frisking here at Chepti under Rangiya PS recovered around 80 kilograms of contraband/ ganja inside from a bus from Guwahati towards Barpeta this morning while trying to supply the same by four persons. Armymen, in this regard had detained two women namely- Soni Parveen and Basanti Devi and another two youths- Anil Prasad and Ravi . The accused four were later handed over to Rangiya Police by the army, and Police had arrested the persons held in this connection. The arrested persons, as per sources reportedly confessed about the fact and said they were about to ferry the ganja to other sides of the state and also outside. Mentionably, one person dressed in olive green absconded from the scene while the other four fell into army dragnet. A complaint had been lodged by Rangiya PS in this connection and the arrested persons were kept in Police lock up till filing this report.
