NDFB on Friday makes it clear that the peace initiative with the government won't proceed unless and until chairman Ranjan Daimary is released immediately.

Addressing a press conference in the dense jungles along the Assam-Arunachal border, the outfit's education secretary B Naijib said figured three basic points apart from release of Ranjan Daimary. He said the government must allow the Bodo people to live in dignity. He further said the Bodo people must regain lost lands under 45 tribal belt and blocks.
