Chief minister Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/2150) on Monday made it plain and simple that his government wants 2014 voter list as (/taxonomy/term/2291) one of the supportive documents to update the national registrar of citizens.

Responding to the legislators who asked him to clear his position, Gogoi said that the list would be required if the documents earlier announced by the Supreme Court are not available for an indigenous (/taxonomy/term/2124) citizen.

He said that his government has already moved the Supreme Court for consideration which has not so far rejected the affidavit.
