A day after his party's defeats in the Lok Sabha polls chief minister Tarun Gogoi said that the ruling party has failed to read the pulse of the people which was why, the party won only 3 seats out of 13. Addressing a press conference at the Rajiv Bhawan on Saturday, Gogoi hoped that the party leadership would deeply examine the reasons behind the poll debacle and to address them accordingly. "I do admit that our performance has failed to attract the new voters,"
