Assam Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi leaves for New Delhi on Wednesday on a three days visit to the national capital.

According to sources, apart from his schedule to call on Congress president Sonia Gandhi, Gogoi is scheduled to meet prime minister Dr Manmohan Singh and Union home minister Sushil Kumar Shinde to apprise them of the prevailing law and order situation in BTAD areas and Dhubri. Gogoi is also scheduled to give a courtesy visit to President Pranab Mukherjee before wrapping his visit.
