

Gogoi pins hopes on big ticket investment in Assam

Comments 0

editor 7 January 2012 8399 views

Assam Chief Minister Tarun Gogoi on Friday said that normalcy was back to Assam. Addressing the Seventh North East Business Summit in New Delhi, the Assam Chief Minister said that his state government has taken the lead in restoring peace in the region.

According to him, "Committed initiatives have led to significant reduction in violence in the state so much so that land prices in the State in the past decade have gone through the roof."

He said the importance of focused marketing of the North East to garner requisite investor interest. Agriculture, food processing, mining and minerals especially, tourism, cement and bamboo represent some of the sectors where Assam boasts promising opportunities.

Inaugurated by Union home minister P Chidambaram, the two day long event was addressed by DoNER minister, Paban Singh Ghatowar Meghalaya Chief Minister Dr. Mukul Sangma.

editor

Please send your comments to editor@assamtimes.org

BY EDITOR

Witch hunting rerun in Chirang!

Police remand for Nagaon culprit

Candle lighting rally

ULFA condoles demise of SS Khaplang

Beef puts M'laya BJP in the red

ON THIS DAY

CDC of Nazira conducts inspection of Fair Price Shops

Rongmei Community Celebrates 7th Cultural and Freshers' Meet in Guwahati

Congress-AIUDF deal finalized

Manas National Park opens for visitors

Link roads inaugurated in Kapahera
