A section of AICC (/taxonomy/term/747) leaders is understood to have devised a mechanism to end (/taxonomy/term/713) dissidence (/taxonomy/term/1152) in CLP (/taxonomy/term/417) by changing chief minister. They are averse to allow Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/512) to continue as chief minister.

But top AICC (/taxonomy/term/747) sources told this correspondent that there is hardly any chance for change in chief minister. The meeting (/taxonomy/term/791) slated for June 23 in New Delhi is expected to discuss the overall (/taxonomy/term/1110) party affairs two years ahead of the assembly polls (/taxonomy/term/804).

Sonia (/taxonomy/term/580) Gandhi is believed to have confirmed Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/512) as chief minister till the 2016 assembly polls (/taxonomy/term/804). If that's all, Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/512) will be able to continue as chief minister who is prepared to reshuffle (/taxonomy/term/1154) his cabinet (/taxonomy/term/460) after June 23.

To be chaired by vice president Rahul (/taxonomy/term/569) Gandhi, the meeting (/taxonomy/term/791) is expected to discuss the strategies for the 2016 assembly polls (/taxonomy/term/804) in presence of chief minister Tarun Gogoi (/taxonomy/term/512) and APCC (/taxonomy/term/709) president Bhubneswar Kalita along with AICC (/taxonomy/term/747) leaders Ahmed Patel, Dr CP Joshi, Ghulam Nabi Azad (/taxonomy/term/1245) and Motilal Vhora and the newly elected MPs.

Notably, AICC (/taxonomy/term/747) leaders on Thursday (/taxonomy/term/941) gave hint of change in Assam (/taxonomy/term/548) chief minister after the crucial meeting (/taxonomy/term/791) slated for June 23.
