Chief minister Tarun Gogoi dared Arvind Kejriwal to move the investigating agencies with allegations corruption against him hours after the Delhi Chief Minister called him one of the most corrupt political leaders in the country.

Taking to reporters in the sidelines of a function in Dibrugarh on Friday, Gogoi said that if the AAP leader has any evidence then why he has yet to move the investigating agencies for probe? “Let him probe the allegations of corruption against me. Why has not he did it? These are political gimmick and nothing else,” said the chief minister.

Kejriwal on Friday called Gogoi one of the most corrupt political leaders in the country.
