A 12 hour district wide bandh disrupted Golaghat the entire district on Saturday. The bandh which began at 6 in the morning was total and full. Barring a few stray incidents, the bandh was by and large peaceful. Four persons have been injured when a section of local business businessmen clashed with police personnel at Merapani in the morning. The bandh was called by Asomia Yuva Manch in protest against the recent lathicharge on protesting students by Nagaland police. Roads remained bare and schools, colleges, offices, business and banks remained closed under the impact of the bandh. AASU observes black day on Saturday across the state demanding action against guilty policemen from Nagaland.

AASU activists also were on the economic blockade against Nagaland in Titabor from Saturday morning.
