

Assam Times

assamtimes.org

LATEST NEWS

Gorkha Talent Show

Hantigiri Narzary · 22:02, 24 Jul 2015 · 10551 views · 2 min read

Over fifty participants participated from various districts of Lower Assam in the audition of first Gorkha Talent (/taxonomy/term/1618) Show of Assam organised by All Assam Gorkha Artiste Association in collaboration with DY365 (Media Partner) today at Commerce College auditorium in Kokrajhar.

Madhav (/taxonomy/term/1645) Prasad Sharma, Deputy Commissioner, Kokrajhar graced the show as chief (/taxonomy/term/2020) guest and inaugurated in the presence of participants and publics.

The participants from various districts like Kokrajgar, Chirang, Bongaigaon, Dhubri presented their talents like dance, singing in the show which had created amusement among judge and publics.

Pradip Gurung, former DID finalist of season 3 attended the show and interacted with budding dancer and singers of Gorkha community (/taxonomy/term/2084) in the state. He said this is a noble venture initiative taking from Gorkha Artiste Association to hunt talents of budding dancer and singers among society. He has expressed his hopeful that this show will encourage the coming up generations to step in competition through their displaying their talents.

Rojee Devi Bhuyan, noted choreographer and judge in the show said that the association has been organising the show to hunt talents of youths in various fields like dancing and singing. She said that the show has gathered huge participation from various districts of lower Assam.

She said that such kind of show organising and programmes will bring enlighten of cultural integration of the community (/taxonomy/term/2084) in the state.

Among others, Madhav (/taxonomy/term/1645) Karki, ex BTC member, Dr Ratneswar Debnath, principal of Commerce College were present in the show.

Hantigiri Narzary

Reporting from Kokrajhar

Original URL: <https://assamtimes.org/article/gorkha-talent-show-14329> | Published: 24 July 2015 | © 2026 Assam Times