A meeting of the Grahak Suraksha Samiti (GSS), Bokakhat and Bokakhat Town Committee was held recently on the latter's premises. GSS was represented by Gopikanda Saikia and Jayanta Das, president and secretary of the organisation respectively.

A number of problems faced by town dwellers of Bokakhat were brought to the notice of the chairman, Bokakhat town committee. GSS demanded measures to clear the daily garbage in the daily bazar, particularly of the fish and fowl market, repair of road connecting Bokakhat FRU, provision of street lights at several critically important locations, fixing up of rickshaw fares and provision of other basic amenities.

The chairman assured to attend to and solve the problems on priority basis.

GSS also submitted a memo to ASEB sub-divisional management and a meet was held subsequently to sort out on ways and means to manage problems related to power supply and installation of electronic metres.
